

YOUR COMMITMENT IN ACTION: FURTHERING GENDER JUSTICE

Your generous support of the Regan Ralph Feminist Leadership Fund is furthering gender equality in societies and within human rights movements. Launched in 2022, this five-year, $1 million initiative honors Fund for Global Human Rights founding President and CEO Regan Ralph.

Thanks to you, the Regan Ralph Feminist Leadership Fund provides tools, training, and opportunities for feminist leaders to grow their organizations and to protect their work and lives, including:

Training, professional development, and executive coaching

Respite for those who need time to recover, recharge, and innovate

Evacuation for feminist activists facing threats

Assistance with building second-line leadership and leadership transitions

Mentorship and shared knowledge opportunities

< 2%

Less than 2 percent of all global giving goes to organizations supporting women, girls, or gender-nonconforming people.

Source: Women's Philanthropy Institute

To date, the Regan Ralph Feminist Leadership Fund has delivered:

NEARLY $600,000

22 GRASSROOTS FEMINIST GROUPS

11 COUNTRIES

2024-2025 GRANTEE PARTNERS

Your generosity is furthering women-led grassroots groups around the world—powering LGBTQ+ activists striving for equality, helping women claim decision-making roles in their communities, and elevating feminist leadership in climate activism.

Meet the grantee partners whose work you're making possible.

ALBANIA

The Streha is supporting LGBTQ+ youth and refugees facing homelessness, violence, and abuse.

BURUNDI

AFRABU is increasing women's representation in local and regional leadership, including peacebuilding efforts following decades of conflict and displacement.

GUATEMALA

Wuxhtaj is training Indigenous women on human rights, preparing them to lead advocacy efforts against mining operations and hydroelectric dams that threaten communities' lands and natural resources.

HONDURAS

Catrachas is leading evidence-based advocacy for systemic change that bolsters respect for LGBTQ+ people, including campaigns to protect LGBTQ+ youth's right to education and secure justice for gender-based violence.

INDIA

Adarsh Shiksha Sansthan is amplifying women's voices and experiences to advocate for their rights to dignified housing and tenure rights.

THE PHILIPPINES

- Galang is defending the socio-economic rights of urban LBT women and advocate for a national LGBTQ+ equality bill.
- Gantala Press, an independent feminist collective, is publishing women-centered perspectives, including those affected by the Duterte's administration repression, incarcerated women, and rural women.

SIERRA LEONE

All for All is delivering leadership programming to deaf and hearing-impaired girls and young women to address dual discrimination they experience.

TUNISIA

Ladies First is providing literacy training to agricultural women and listening centers providing legal and mental health support to women facing violence.

THANK YOU

for your commitment to gender justice and the Regan Ralph Feminist Leadership Fund.
You are supporting feminist leaders around the world working for a more just future.

LEARN MORE! www.globalhumanrights.org |     @fundhumanrights

The Fund is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization (Federal Tax ID 75-3029336) and a UK registered charity (Charity Number 1151043 and Company Number 08357053).